Closing-Out Sale!

April 15, 1939

Stocks are becoming depleted very rapidly and we expect this to be our last offering of the season. We sincerely advise early orders.

We have small quantities of many varieties not listed herein and if you care to place your order for these items we will fill same if possible but you should provide a second choice in the event we do not have them.

At this late season you should provide second choice as it is getting too late for much correspondence as it requires several days in most cases for letters to pass each way; and, should we write you we have a certain item, when we receive your reply it might be sold out completely. Should we be out of the size ordered we will fill order with same variety but smaller size unless advised to the contrary if stock is available.

All stock offered is subject to prior sale.
